3. CONDUCT IN SOCIAL MEDIA ACTIVITY

While all individuals are welcome to participate in social media, it is expected that everyone who participates in online commentary in relation to activities involving the DUFNC and the PDFNL and its Stakeholders shall respect and adhere to the following simple but important guidelines.

These guidelines are in place to assist in achieving our overall goal, that is, to participate online in a respectful, relevant way that protects the reputation of the DUFNC and the PDFNL and the individuals within it, and of course follows the letter and spirit of the law:

- Be transparent and state that you are affiliated with the DUFNC or PDFNL. Your honesty will be noted in the Social Media environment. If you are writing about matters relating to the DUFNC or PDFNL or a competitor, use your real name, identify that your affiliation, and be clear about your role. If you have a vested interest in what you are discussing, be the first to say so.
- Never represent yourself, the DUFNC or PDFNL in a false or misleading way. All statements must be true and not misleading; all claims must be substantiated.
- Post meaningful, respectful comments — in other words, no spam and no remarks that are off topic or offensive.
- Use common sense and common courtesy: for example, it's best to ask permission to publish or report on conversations that are meant to be private or internal to the DUFNC or PDFNL.
- Make sure your efforts are transparent and don't violate DUFNC or PDFNL privacy, confidentiality, and legal guidelines for external commercial speech.
- Stick to your area of expertise and do feel free to provide unique, individual perspectives on non-confidential activities a DUFNC or PDFNL
- When disagreeing with others' opinions, keep it appropriate and polite. If you find yourself in a situation online that looks as if it's becoming antagonistic, do not get overly defensive and do not disengage from the conversation abruptly: feel free to ask the President or a Committee Member for advice and/or to disengage from the dialogue in a polite manner that reflects well on DUFNC or PDFNL.
- If you want to write about the competition, make sure you behave diplomatically, have the facts straight and that you have the appropriate permissions.
- Never comment on anything related to legal matters, litigation, or any parties the DUFNC or PDFNL may be in litigation with.

- Never participate in social media when the topic being discussed may be considered a crisis situation. Even anonymous comments may be traced back to your IP address. Refer all Social Media activity around crisis topics to the President or Committee Member who will inform the DUFNC or the PDFNL Board.
- Be smart about protecting yourself, your privacy, and DUFNC and PDFNL's confidential information.
- Think globally, what you publish is widely accessible and will be around for a long time, so consider the content carefully; you should be respectful of religions, races, individuals, cultures. Google has a long memory!

CONSEQUENCE OF BREACH

Any breach of the above guidelines may result in disciplinary action against the offending party, at the discretion of the DUFNC Committee or PDFNL.
